

URBAN FORESTS & POLITICAL ECOLOGIES

CELEBRATING TRANSDISCIPLINARITY

April 18-20, 2013

Toronto, Canada

ufpe.ca

The first of its kind, this international three-day conference will cover a wide range of issues related to urban forests, trees and greenspaces from political ecology perspectives.

Themes:

Historical Narratives
Urban Tree Cultures and Identities
Social Inclusion
From Government to Governance
Urban Ecology Pedagogies
Adaptation and Vulnerability

Registration is now open!

For more details, see our schedule of events.

Speakers include:

Dr. Joanna Dean
Carleton University, Canada

Dr. Giovanna Di Chiro
Swarthmore College, USA

Dr. Nik Heynen
University of Georgia, USA

Dr. Owain Jones
University of Gloucestershire, UK

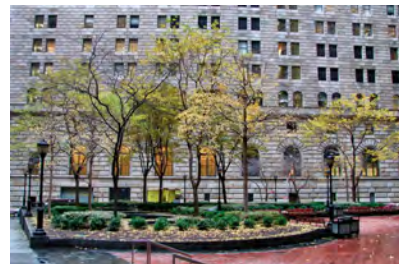

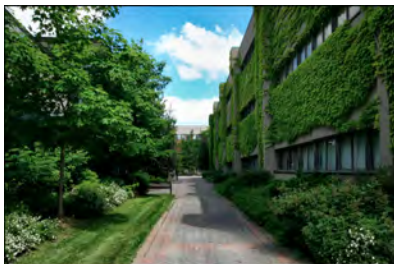

Dr. Roger Keil
York University, Canada

Dr. Cecil Konijnendijk
University of Copenhagen, Denmark

Dr. Faisal Moola
David Suzuki Foundation

Dr. Cate Sandilands
York University, Canada

Dr. Greg Smith
Lewis & Clark College, USA

The conference will include a special panel on Rouge Park, an art exhibit, as well as field tours of the Humber Arboretum & Centre for Urban Ecology and the Alternative Campus Tour at York University.

TD Friends of the Environment Foundation

York University Libraries

