

Being a Forest Scientist during a Global Pandemic

IUFRO Division 6 'Social Aspects of Forests and Forestry' webinar series

Friday 25 June 2021, 14.00-15.00 hrs Central European Time

This 2nd Division 6 webinar takes the format of a panel debate on the work and life of forest scientists during a global pandemic. What have been the major challenges and how have people dealt with them? Was it possible to balance work and family? What are the impacts on careers and research? Has anything good come out of this?

Join us for a lively discussion with four inspiring panellists from across the globe.
